CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 – Curriculum Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 – Institution has the mechanism for well planned curriculum delivery and documentation. Explain in 500 words

Government Arts College is a public funded institute under the University of Kerala. The college follows the curriculum given by University of Kerala and adheres strictly to the academic calendar provided by University of Kerala. The college offers 4 undergraduate and 5 post graduate programmes. The Department of Commerce is a recognised research centre. The college also has an MoU with the Centre for Continuing Education Kerala to provide value added courses. The following procedures are developed and deployed for the effective implementation of the curriculum. The college council monitors the decided strategies for the transaction of the curriculum. Curriculum is delivered thorough a planned approach, which is methodically supervised at the department level (via DLMC) as well as the college level (via CLMC) and supported by Internal Quality Assurance Committee (IQAC) and the College Council. The teaching and laboratory plans are also approved by the respective monitoring committee before the start of semester. The individual members of the faculty prepare an Objective Driven Teaching Plan and the daily update is entered in the teachers diary. The College encourages its faculty members to participate in Orientation/ Refresher Courses/ Workshops/ Seminars organized by the University and by other agencies, so as to update their knowledge and to improve the teaching practices. Several Members of faculty are also members of various academic bodies like Board of Studies of the University, which ensures improvement of overall academic growth of the college. Teachers are encouraged to impart the curriculum through innovative teaching methods such as presentations, assignments, discussions, workshops, seminars and industrial visits besides the regular/traditional chalk and talk. Teachers are advised to update their skills in using new teaching methods and adopt them for the benefit of the students. Online resources are introduced in the class room by the departments. The continuous evaluation is part of the curriculum and is done and evaluated as per instructions given by the university.

1.4 – Feedback System

1.4.1 – Whether structured feedback received from all the stakeholders.

Students	Yes
Teachers	Nil
Employers	Nil
Alumni	Yes
Parents	Nil

1.4.2 – How the feedback obtained is being analyzed and utilized for overall development of the institution? (maximum 500 words)

Feedback Obtained

Government Arts College has a robust stakeholder feedback mechanism, ensuring continuous improvement and satisfaction. Through structured feedback forms, the Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS), Departmental Level Monitoring Committee (DLMC) meetings, Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) general body meetings, suggestion boxes, and class and general representatives reports, the college solicits input from students, alumni, and parents. This multi-channel approach provides diverse perspectives, identifying areas for improvement and strengths. To maintain confidentiality, stakeholder feedback remains anonymous, allowing for free and fair reporting. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) consolidates and analyzes feedback data, providing valuable insights into institutional performance. Results are discussed between the Principal and concerned teachers, informing performance evaluations and facilitating targeted professional development. The colleges commitment to feedback-driven improvement is ongoing, with processes in place to address infrastructural issues in real-time. Class representatives and general representatives on the student body play a vital role in reporting concerns, ensuring prompt action. Additionally, PTA general body meetings offer parents a public platform to voice concerns. The suggestion box outside the office provides an avenue for immediate feedback. IQACs critical analysis of consolidated data enables the college to assess its performance from stakeholders perspectives, identifying areas for enhancement. This informed approach allows the college to retain effective practices, eliminate unnecessary engagements, and develop targeted strategies and policies. By fostering a culture of continuous improvement, Government Arts College ensures stakeholder satisfaction and institutional excellence. The integration of feedback into the colleges decision-making process demonstrates its dedication to providing a student-centered, inclusive, and supportive learning environment. By embracing stakeholder input, the college stays adaptable and responsive to evolving needs, optimizing its programs and services. This proactive stance enables Government Arts College to maintain high standards of quality, relevance, and effectiveness in its academic programs, student support services, and community engagement initiatives. Through its comprehensive feedback mechanism, the college embodies a culture of accountability, transparency, and continuous improvement, ultimately enhancing the educational experience for all stakeholders.

2.3.2 – Students mentoring system available in the institution? Give details. (maximum 500 words)

The college is dedicated to providing its students with the tools they need to succeed academically. The mentoring process is a helpful technique to learn about students various abilities, aspirations, strengths, and shortcomings. The mentor is required to help students create their own goals and provide enough information on the academic requirements that must be met. In matters of Placements, Internships, and Projects, students can seek the mentors assistance. A mentoring form is supplied to each student under the mentor in order to undertake a tailored individual assessment. The mentor should meet with each mentee on a regular basis to check in on their development. The information provided by the mentee is expected to be kept confidential by the mentor. Apart from the college has two programmes called the WWS (Walk with a Scholar) and SSP (Student Support Programme). The Walk with a Scholar (WWS) initiative aims to provide specialised mentorship programmes for students enrolled in Undergraduate Programs in Arts, Science, and Commerce, as well as future guidance. The programme explains the concept of mentoring and expands on the mentor's role as a Guide and a Friend. 90 UG students (30 students from each year) are selected and are allocated to 15 teachers as part of this programme. The Scholar Support Programme (SSP) is part of New Initiatives in Higher Education. This programme attempts to help students at the bottom of the merit ladder overcome their academic weaknesses. 120 UG students are benefited by this programme.

Number of students enrolled in the institution	Number of fulltime teachers	Mentor : Mentee Ratio

2.5.2 – Reforms initiated on Continuous Internal Evaluation(CIE) system at the institutional level (250 words)

A significant component of the institutions curriculum involves Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE). Teachers administer exams as part of the teaching and learning process. Each semester includes internal tests, with dates noted in the yearly calendar. If students miss an exam, retests are provided. Those excused from both internal exams can retake them, aligning with the syllabus requirements. Students engaged in extracurricular activities are offered special assessments to make up for missed internal exams. Additionally, students submit assignments and present at seminars, contributing to their internal evaluations. The institution seeks innovative methods for internal assessments. Creative projects, such as posters, are displayed to encourage student participation in expos. Every student receives a printed question paper for internal assessments, and model practical exams are conducted. After analyzing performance, remedial measures are suggested. An internal squad committee addresses malpractice issues. Class mentors lead PTA meetings to discuss student progress with parents. ICT tools are used to conduct seminars, ensuring students develop proficiency by the courses end. Library-oriented homework assignments encourage students to utilize diverse information sources.

This comprehensive approach ensures a continuous, dynamic feedback loop, contributing to the holistic development of students.

2.5.3 – Academic calendar prepared and adhered for conduct of Examination and other related matters (250 words)

The college follows the academic calendar of the University of Kerala. The academic calendar is prepared in accordance with the same. The semester classes commence on the dates stipulated by the University of Kerala. Ninety days are expected in each semester of the academic year. Every effort is taken to see that the said dates are met. Commencement of Classes, Conduct of Internal Examinations, Giving topics for assignment and its submission, Declaration of CE marks and submission take place in accordance to the academic calendar. The dates of applying for the examination and actual examination dates normally happen as decided at the beginning of the academic year. Rarely the dates of the final University Examinations might get changed by the university due to unforeseen reasons. In the current academic year, the regular classes started in the first week of June. However due to the outbreak of the Covid Pandemic, lock down was declared in the state (as everywhere in the country). Hence the classes were unexpectedly brought to an end mid March 2020. Examinations too were delayed this academic year due to Covid.

7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

BEST PRACTICE - 1 Share Your Experience 1. Title of the practice: Share Your Experience 2. Goal: To share the experience of faculty members from different disciplines to students. 3. The Context/Back ground: The college offers 9 programmes. There are seven major departments and ten general departments. The faculty in the college are highly resourceful with immense experience be it their post-doctoral experience or their research experience. It was decided to share knowledge of one's domain to students of another domain in a digestible manner. The idea was to widen the knowledge base and to look into the interdisciplinary aspects. 4. The Practice: The sessions were conducted on 3rd Friday afternoons by departments in rotation. The collective effort received ample support from the college authorities. The session was for 20 minutes followed by 30 minutes of discussion. 5. Evidence of success: Students regularly turned up for the sessions. The interdisciplinary aspect challenged them to think in diverse ways. BEST PRACTICE - 2: Extended SKILL SHARE DARE 1. Title of the practice: Extended Skill-Share-Dare 2. Goal: Preparing the students for real life by contributing to the society promoting environmentally benign practices. 3. The Context/Back ground: The idea stemmed from the department's reaction against the popular belief that educational institutions focus only on academics, leaving the students underprepared for the real life thereafter. It was hence decided that they should be imparted practical skills and encouraged to spread it to others. 4. The Practice: The programme has a trial run from the preceding year. The chosen skills for the year were paper bag making, cloth bag making, and pattern drafting, with sessions scheduled after class hours on select days. The sessions emphasized on activities that promote eco-friendly practices. Like paper bag making, encouraging the use of eco-friendly and repurpose old newspapers. The sessions were welcomed by many students. 5. Evidence of success: More students became part of the programme which was fine tuned this academic year. 6. Problems encountered and the resources required.: Number of participants had to be limited, Gathering raw materials

Amritam Tu Vidya (Knowledge is Nectar) is the motto of Government Arts College Thiruvananthapuram, a public institution that aspires to excellence. Government

Arts College believes in social inclusivity and strives to develop students holistically by bringing out their best qualities and allowing them to internalise the high principles of social commitment and tolerance along with in-depth knowledge and research aptitude. No one is subjected to discrimination on the grounds of socioeconomic status, language, caste, religion, or race. Despite being predominantly Malayali, our students come from a variety of sociocultural backgrounds because of the statewide admissions process. The institution welcomes students from all walks of life and works hard to help the less fortunate members of society. For the advantage of the students, the government announces a number of programs, both financial and intellectual. Since the college is publicly sponsored, all of these programs are designed to benefit the students. Careful attention is paid to ensuring that the same end up in the rightful hands. The college is also dedicated to fostering in its students the virtues of honesty, morality, and good citizenship in order to help them develop into self-assured and responsible adults. Certain groups and committees inside the college also carry out a variety of activities along these lines. Gender equity is important to Government Arts College. For female students, there is a dedicated ladies room that is kept tidy and equipped with all the conveniences they might want. Additionally, throughout the academic year, a licensed counselor on campus is guaranteed to be available. The college does everything it can to educate the public. Facilities for programs such as the Higher Secondary School Teacher Transformation program (HSST TP) have been shared by the college. In order to contribute to environmental protection, the organization is also investing in the next generation.

8.Future Plans of Actions for Next Academic Year

The college is working hard to improve its facilities and services. First, a brand-new building funded by KIIFB (Kerala Infrastructure Investment Fund Board) is expected to be completed in an year. This modern building will house a state-of-the-art library, offering A vast collection of reference books, Spacious reading areas, and Fast and reliable internet access for research and learning. To support digital learning, the college plans to introduce a dedicated Learning Management System (LMS). This online platform will help students access course materials, submit assignments, and interact with teachers easily. All staff members will receive comprehensive training to ensure a smooth transition. As the college has limited space for new construction, its exploring options to acquire adjacent land for future development. This will enable the college to build additional facilities, enhancing the overall learning experience. Strategic partnerships are also a priority. The college aims to sign Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs) with renowned government bodies, such as the Councils of Government of Kerala. These collaborations will foster knowledge sharing and research, Provide opportunities for faculty development and Enhance job prospects for students. By implementing these plans, Government Arts College Thiruvananthapuram will solidify its reputation as a center of academic excellence, nurturing well-rounded, socially responsible individuals equipped to succeed in todays fast-paced world.
